

Ester Park - Phankl

E C#m E
A quiet tide underneath the open skies, quiet tide

E C#m B
Over time we all see with Midas' eyes, over time

A B E
All alone in the space of one breath

A B E
All at once you've become bored to death

The divide, the divide is in your mind, the divide
Worlds collide but there's only one earthkind, when worlds collide

All alone in the space of one breath
All at once you've become bored to death
Bored to death

C#m E
It's still raining after dark
A F#m
You've been feigning your remarks
Dmaj7 A B E
Things are strangely still in Ester Park

E A G D E
Hey, Hey, Hey (hey), Hey (hey), Hey (hey), Hey (Twice)

Interlude/Solo E A7 G D/F# (repeat)

Better times, better times are on my mind, better times
No rewind, looking forward all the time, no rewind

All at once in the space of one breath
Nevermore to become bored to death
Bored to death

After rain we'll disembark
And come charging off the ark
We'll be playing out in Ester Park

After rain we'll disembark
And come charging off the ark
We'll be playing out in Ester Park

Hey, Hey, Hey (hey), Hey (hey), Hey (hey), Hey
